

SHASHANK GAUTAM

Communication designer, Illustrator, Content Writer

ABOUT

Hi, This is Shashank Gautam as Pierre Bezukhov straight out of Leo Tolstoy's War and Peace. Drawing caricatures and then illustrations have always been a part of my life and has shaped me as a person.

I really enjoy the company of nerdy people who with their imagination can transform these mind images into what we can actually see on paper. Most of the time you will always see me in challenging situations rowing the boat against the stream. Trust me, it is fun and makes me learn a lot.
